1. Name, domicile and term of Company

- 1.1 Under the name GAM Holding Ltd. (GAM Holding AG, GAM Holding SA), there exists a Company according to the following Articles of Incorporation and the provisions of Title XXVI of the Swiss Code of Obligations.
- 1.2 The term of the Company shall be unlimited.
- 1.3 The domicile of the Company shall be Zurich.

2. Object and purpose of Company

- 2.1 The purpose of the Company shall be the acquisition and management of permanent participations, particularly in investment companies.
- 2.2 The Company may purchase, pledge as collateral and sell real estate.
- 2.3 The Company may be active domestically and abroad.
- 2.4 Otherwise, the Company may execute all transactions directly or indirectly related to the purpose of the Company as well as all transactions which may further the purpose of the Company.

3. Share capital

- 3.1 The fully paid-up share capital amounts to CHF 7 984 126.55. It is fully paid-up.
- 3.2 The share capital is divided into 159 682 531 registered shares with a par value of CHF-.05 each.
- 3.3 The share capital may be increased or reduced by resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting.

- 3.4 ¹The Company has a capital band ranging from CHF 7 185 714.55 (lower limit) to CHF 8 782 538.55 (upper limit). The Board of Directors shall be authorized within the capital band to increase or reduce the share capital once or several times and in any amounts or to acquire or dispose of shares directly or indirectly, until 25 May 2028 or until an earlier expiry of the capital band. The capital increase or reduction may be effected by issuing a maximum of 15 968 240 fully paid registered shares with a par value of CHF -.05 each and cancelling a maximum of 15 968 240 registered shares with a par value of CHF -.05 each, as applicable, or by increasing or reducing the par value of the existing shares within the limits of the capital band or by simultaneous reduction and re-increase of the share capital.

³In the event of an issue of shares, the Board of Directors shall, to the extent necessary, determine the issue price, the type of contribution (including cash contributions, contributions in kind, set-off and conversion of reserves or of profit carried forward into share capital), the date of issue, the conditions for the exercise of the pre-emptive rights and the beginning date for dividend entitlement. In this regard, the Board of Directors may issue new shares by means of a firm underwriting through a financial institution, a syndicate of financial institutions or another third party and a subsequent offer of these shares to the existing shareholders or third parties (if the pre-emptive rights of the existing shareholders have been denied or not been duly exercised). The Board of Directors is entitled to permit, to restrict or to exclude the trade with pre-emptive rights. It may permit pre-emptive rights that have not been exercised to expire, or it may place such rights or shares as to which pre-emptive rights have been granted, but not exercised, at market conditions or may use them otherwise in the interest of the Company.

⁴ In the event of an issue of shares, the Board of Directors is authorized to restrict or withdraw the pre-emptive rights of the existing shareholders with respect to a maximum of 15 968 240 registered shares and allocate such rights to third parties:

- a) if the issue price of the new shares is determined by reference to the market price; or
- b) for the acquisition of companies, part(s) of companies or participations, for the acquisition of products, intellectual property or licenses or for investment projects, or for the financing or refinancing of any of such transactions through a placement of shares; or
- c) for purposes of broadening the shareholder constituency of the Company in certain financial or investor markets, for purposes of the participation of strategic partners, or in connection with the listing of new shares on domestic or foreign stock exchanges.

3.5 ¹ The share capital may be increased in an amount not to exceed CHF 3,992,063.25 through the issuance of up to 79,841,265 fully paid registered shares with a nominal of CHF -.05 per share to be issued upon exercise of options or other rights to acquire shares of the Company granted to members of the Board of Directors, or employees of the Company or its group companies, or other persons providing services to the Company or its group companies under the terms of equity incentive plans or regulations adopted by the Board of Directors. The pre-emptive and advance subscription rights of the shareholders of the Company shall be excluded.

² The declaration of the exercise of options or other rights based on this provision shall be made in a form that allows proof by text.

³ The new shares will be subject to the restrictions of Article 4.3 to 4.6 of these Articles of Incorporation.

4. Shares

4.1 [deleted]

4.2 ¹ The Company shall keep a share register, in which the owners and usufructuaries of the registered shares are entered with their name, address and nationality, respectively, place of incorporation in case of legal entities. A person registered in the share register shall notify the share registrar of any change in contact information. Communications from the Company shall be deemed to have been validly made if sent to the shareholder's or authorized delivery agent's last registered contact information. In relation to the Company, any person entered in the share register shall be deemed to be a shareholder.

² The Board of Directors shall issue the necessary rules regarding the maintenance of the share register. The Board of Directors may delegate its duties.

³The Board of Directors shall determine in the invitation to the Shareholders' Meeting the cut-off date for entry in the share register relevant to determine the right to participate and vote in the Shareholders' Meeting.

4.3 ¹ Subject to the following provisions, the registered shares of the Company are issued as uncertificated securities and registered as intermediated securities. The Company may withdraw shares registered as intermediated securities from the custodian system.

² Each shareholder may at any time request from the Company a certification about the shares owned by him/her. The shareholders, however, have no right to request the printing and delivery of certificates for their registered shares.

4.4 ¹ A person having acquired registered shares shall upon application be entered into the share register as shareholder with voting rights, provided that such person expressly acknowledges that he/she has acquired the shares in his/her own name and for his/her own account, that there is no agreement on the redemption of the relevant shares and that they bear the economic risk associated with the shares. If the person acquiring registered shares does not provide such acknowledgment, the Board of Directors may refuse the entry in the share register.

² The Board of Directors may issue rules for the entry in the share register of fiduciaries/nominees. It may enter in the share register fiduciaries/nominees with voting rights of up to 2% of the share capital. The Board of Directors may enter fiduciaries/nominees with voting rights in excess of 2%, if such fiduciaries/nominees disclose the name, address, nationality, respectively, legal entity and shareholding of all persons for whose account they hold at least 0.5% of the outstanding share capital. Fiduciaries/nominees, which are affiliated with other fiduciaries/nominees by means of ownership structure or voting rights, or which have a common management, or are otherwise affiliated, shall be deemed one fiduciary/nominee as regards the application of these entry limitations.

4.5 This article remains subject to the mandatory provisions of Art. 685d paragraph 3 of the Swiss Code of Obligations.

4.6 The entry limitations as set forth in article 4.3 et seq. of the Articles of Incorporation shall also be applicable to shares which have been subscribed for or acquired pursuant to the exercise of a subscription, option or conversion right.

5. Subscription rights

In the event of an increase in share capital, each shareholder has the right to the portion of the newly issued shares as corresponds to its earlier shareholding. The resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting for the increase of the share capital may only revoke the subscription rights for important reasons. Important reasons shall include in particular the takeover of a business, parts of a business or shareholdings as well as the shareholding interests of the employees. No one shall be favored or disadvantaged in an improper manner by the revocation of the subscription rights.

6. Debentures

The Company is entitled to issue debentures which may be registered or to bearer. The Board of Directors shall decide on their issuance and determine the conditions and terms thereof.

7. Organization of the Company

The organs of the Company shall be:

- 7.1 The Shareholders' Meeting
- 7.2 The Board of Directors
- 7.3 The Auditors

8. The Shareholders' Meeting

- 8.1 ¹ The Shareholders' Meeting shall take place at the domicile of the Company or at another place in Switzerland to be determined by the Board of Directors.

² The Board of Directors can determine that the Shareholders' Meeting be held simultaneously at different locations, provided that the contributions of the participants are transmitted directly in video and audio to all venues and/or that shareholders, who are not present at the venue(s) of the Shareholders' Meeting may exercise their rights by electronic means.

³ Alternatively, the Board of Directors may also provide that the Shareholders' Meeting will be held by electronic means without a venue.

- 8.2 The shareholder shall exercise at the Shareholders' Meeting its rights in the affairs of the Company. It may represent itself or be represented by a third party or the independent representative at the Shareholders' Meeting.
- 8.3 The Board of Directors shall give the necessary instructions for determining the voting rights and regulates the issuance of proxies and voting cards. The Chairman shall decide about admission to the Shareholders' Meeting and the acceptance of proxies.
- 8.4 ¹ The independent representative shall be elected by the Shareholders' Meeting. Its term of office shall expire after completion of the next Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting. Re-election is possible. If the Company does not have an independent representative the Board of Directors shall appoint the independent representative for the next Shareholders' Meeting.

² The independent representative shall inform the Company of the amount, kind, nominal value and category of shares represented by it. The Chairman shall disclose this information to the Shareholders' Meeting.

8.5 ¹ The Shareholders' Meeting shall be called at a minimum of twenty days before the date of the Shareholders' Meeting by a single notice pursuant to article 18 of the Articles of Incorporation.

² The notice shall include the date, beginning, mode and venue of the Shareholders' Meeting; the matters to be handled; the proposals of the Board of Directors together with a brief statement of the reasons; the proposals of the shareholders who require that the Shareholders' Meeting be carried out or that a matter or proposal be put on the agenda, if any, together with a brief statement of the reasons; and the name and address of the independent representative.

8.6 ¹ Resolutions on proposals for matters which were not in the notice cannot be passed with the exception of proposals to call an Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting or of carrying out a special investigation.

² No prior notice is required for making proposals which are within the scope of the matters to be handled and for discussing matters without passing a resolution.

8.7 ¹ The Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting shall be called by the Board of Directors each year within six months from the closing of the fiscal year.

² Extraordinary Shareholders' Meetings may be called by the Board of Directors or if necessary the Auditors whenever a meeting is deemed to be in the interest of the Company.

8.8 ¹ The calling of a Shareholders' Meeting may also be requested by one or more shareholders who together represent at least 5 percent of the share capital or the votes. The Board of Directors must convene the requested Shareholders' Meeting within six weeks after the request is received.

² Shareholders who represent shares at least 0.5 percent of the share capital or the votes may demand that matters be put on the agenda or that a proposal relating to a matter be included in the notice convening the Shareholders' Meeting. This request must be submitted at least six weeks before the date of the Shareholders' Meeting of the Company.

³ The request to call a meeting and to put a matter or proposal on the agenda must be done in writing including the matters to be handled and/or the proposals.

8.9 ¹ The Shareholders' Meeting shall be chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by another person elected from the Board of Directors by the Board. If no member of the Board of Directors in charge of chairing the Shareholders' Meeting is present, the Meeting shall elect an ad hoc Chairman who need not be a shareholder.

² The minutes shall be kept by the Secretary of the Board of Directors. If not available, the Chairman shall designate a Secretary who need not be a shareholder. The resolutions and election results shall be made available electronically within 15 calendar days after the Shareholders' Meeting, stating the exact proportion of votes; each shareholder may request that the minutes be made available to him within 30 calendar days after the Shareholders' Meeting.

³ The Chairman of the Shareholders' Meeting shall if necessary appoint one or more persons to count votes who do not need to be shareholders.

⁴ The Chairman shall take all necessary measures to assure the undisturbed and proper performance of the Shareholders' Meeting.

- 8.10 Each share is entitled to one vote.
- 8.11 In the Shareholders' Meeting, the Chairman orders whether the votes are cast by open ballot, by written ballot or by electronic means. The Chairman may at any time rerun a ballot if, in the Chairman's opinion, the result of the ballot is doubtful. In such event, the previous ballot shall be deemed as not existing.
- 8.12 The Shareholders' Meeting shall have the following non-transferable powers:
- a) to adopt and amend the Articles of Incorporation;
 - b) to elect the members of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the members of the Compensation Committee;
 - c) to elect the Statutory Auditors;
 - d) to elect the independent representative;
 - e) to approve the management report, the Group accounts, the annual accounts as well as to pass a resolution for the use of the net profit, in particular fixing the dividends;
 - f) to approve interim dividends and the interim financial statements required for this purpose;
 - g) to approve the repayment of the statutory capital reserve;
 - h) to approve the compensation of the Board of Directors and of the executive management pursuant to article 11.1 of the Articles of Incorporation;
 - i) to discharge the members of the Board of Directors and of the executive management;
 - j) to delist the Company's equity securities;
 - k) to approve the compensation report and the report on non-financial matters pursuant to Art. 964c Swiss Code of Obligations;
 - l) to pass resolutions on matters which are reserved to the Shareholders' Meeting by law or statute or which are submitted to it for decision by the Board of Directors;
 - m) to pass resolutions for converting registered shares into bearer shares and for creating and eliminating voting shares.
- 8.13 Except where otherwise required by mandatory law or article 8.14 of the Articles of Incorporation, all resolutions of the Shareholders' Meeting are passed by a majority of the votes cast, excluding blank or invalid ballots. The Chairman, insofar as he/she is also a shareholder of the Company, shall participate in the ballots and, in case of a tied vote, he/she shall have the casting vote.
- 8.14 ¹ At least a two-thirds majority of the votes represented and an absolute majority of the par value of shares represented are required for the adoption of a resolution regarding:
- a) amending the purpose of the Company;

- b) creation and elimination of voting shares;
- c) restrictions on the transfer of registered shares and the cancellation of such restrictions;
- d) introduction of a conditional capital or a capital band;
- e) increase of the capital by conversion of capital surplus, by contribution of kind or by set-off against a claim and the grant of special rights;
- f) restriction or suspension of subscription rights;
- g) change in location of the Company's domicile;
- h) combination of shares;
- i) change of currency of the share capital;
- j) delisting of the Company's equity securities;
- k) introduction of an arbitration clause in the articles of incorporation;
- l) a provision in the articles of incorporation concerning the conduct of a Shareholders' Meeting abroad; and
- m) dissolution of the Company.

² Resolutions concerning a merger, demerger and conversion shall be subject to the provisions of the Swiss Merger Act.

9. The Board of Directors

9.1 ¹ The Board of Directors shall consist of at least five members.

² The term of office of the members of the Board of Directors shall expire after completion of the next Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting. The election of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and of the other members of the Board of Directors shall be conducted separately. Reelection is possible.

9.2 If the office of the Chairman of the Board of Directors is vacant, the Board of Directors shall appoint a new Chairman from among its members for the remaining term of office.

9.3 Except for the election of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the members of the Compensation Committee by the Shareholders' Meeting, the Board of Directors shall constitute itself. It shall elect a Secretary who need not be a member of the Board of Directors.

9.4 The Board of Directors shall meet as often as business requires, but at least once per quarter. The meetings are generally called by the Chairman and when he/she is not able to do so by another member. Any member may ask, indicating the reasons, for a meeting to be immediately called by the Chairman.

9.5 The presence of a majority of its members is necessary for resolutions of the Board of Directors to be passed with the exception of the ascertainment resolution and the resolution concerning the amendment of the Articles of Incorporation as well as the capital increase report in the case of capital changes or a change of currency of the share capital.

Resolutions are passed by an absolute majority of votes of members present. In the case of a tied vote, the Chairman shall have the casting vote. Directors shall also be deemed to be present if participating by phone or electronic means (video).

- 9.6 ¹ Resolutions of the Board of Directors may also be passed by way of written consent or electronically provided that no member requests oral deliberation.
- ² The text of circular resolutions must be sent to all members of the Board of Directors and requires the consent of all members of the Board of Directors to be valid.
- ³ The deliberations and resolutions of the Board of Directors, in particular those resolutions circulated in writing or electronically, must be set down in the minutes which shall be signed by the Chairman and the Secretary.
- 9.7 ¹ The Board of Directors shall have the following non-transferable and irrevocable duties:
- a) to supervise the Company and issue the necessary instructions;
 - b) to determine the organization;
 - c) to arrange the accounting, financial control and planning inasmuch as they are necessary for the management of the Company;
 - d) to appoint and remove the persons entrusted with the Company's management;
 - e) to control those persons entrusted with the management of the Company, also in relation to compliance with laws, statutes, regulations and instructions;
 - f) to draw up the business report, the compensation report and the report on non-financial matters and to prepare the Shareholders' Meeting and implementation of its resolutions;
 - g) to submit a petition for debt-restructuring moratorium and to inform the court in the event of over-indebtedness;
 - h) other powers and duties reserved to the Board of Directors by law or these Articles of Incorporation.
- ² The Board of Directors may assign the preparation and carrying out of its resolutions or the supervision of transactions to committees or individual members. The Board of Directors must make sure the members of the Board of Directors are suitably informed.
- 9.8 The Board of Directors may pursuant to Organization By-Laws or specific resolutions transfer the management in whole or in part to individual members (delegates) or to third parties (directors, managers). The Organization By-Laws set forth the management, determine the positions necessary for it, describe its duties and regulate in particular reporting.

10. The Compensation Committee

10.1 The Compensation Committee shall consist of at least three members of the Board of Directors.

10.2 ¹ The members of the Compensation Committee shall be individually elected by the Shareholders' Meeting.

² The term of office of the members of the Compensation Committee shall expire after completion of the next Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting. Re-election is possible.

³ If there are vacancies on the Compensation Committee, the Board of Directors shall fill the vacancies from among its members for the remaining term of office.

10.3 ¹ The Compensation Committee shall constitute itself. The Board of Directors shall appoint a Chairman.

² The Board of Directors shall issue a charter establishing the organisation and decision-making process of the Compensation Committee.

10.4 ¹ The Compensation Committee shall support the Board of Directors in establishing and reviewing the Company's compensation strategy and guidelines and in preparing the proposals to the Shareholders' Meeting regarding the compensation of the members of the Board of Directors and of the executive management, and may submit proposals to the Board of Directors in other compensation-related issues.

² The Board of Directors shall determine in a charter for which positions of the Board of Directors and of the executive management the Compensation Committee shall (with or without the involvement of the Chairman of the Board of Directors) submit proposals to the Board of Directors for the applicable performance targets and the compensation levels, and for which positions it shall itself determine, in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and the compensation guidelines established by the Board of Directors, the applicable performance targets and the compensation levels.

³ The Board of Directors may delegate further tasks and powers to the Compensation Committee.

11. Compensation of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Management

11.1 ¹ The Shareholders' Meeting shall approve annually the proposals of the Board of Directors in relation to the aggregate amount of:

- a) the maximum compensation of the Board of Directors for the period until the next Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting;
- b) the maximum fixed compensation of the executive management for the current financial year;
- c) the variable compensation of the executive management for the preceding financial year.

² The Board of Directors may submit for approval by the Shareholders' Meeting proposals in relation to maximum aggregate amounts of compensation relating to different periods, in relation to amounts for specific compensation elements for the same or different periods, and in relation to contingent amounts.

11.2 In the event a proposal of the Board of Directors has not been approved, the Board of Directors shall determine, taking into account all relevant factors, the respective (maximum) aggregate amount of compensation or (maximum) partial amounts for specific compensation elements, and submit the amount(s) so determined for approval by a subsequent Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting or by the next Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting.

- 11.3 The Company or any company controlled by it may pay out compensation prior to approval by the Shareholders' Meeting subject to subsequent approval by that body.
- 11.4 The Company or any company controlled by it shall be authorised to grant and pay to members who become members during a compensation period for which the Shareholders' Meeting has already approved the compensation of the executive management a supplementary amount during the compensation period or compensation periods already approved. The supplementary amount per compensation period of all such members shall in total not exceed 80% of the aggregate amounts of fixed and variable compensation of the executive management last approved by the Shareholders' Meeting. The individual compensation level shall not be inconsistent with the Company's then current approach to compensation.
- 11.5 ¹ The compensation of the members of the Board of Directors consists of a fixed compensation.
- ² In addition to a fixed compensation, members of the executive management may be paid a variable compensation, which depends on the performance of the Company and the achievement of certain performance criteria and/or promotes employee retention.
- ³ The performance criteria may include individual targets, targets of the Company, the Group or parts thereof and targets in relation to the market, other companies or comparable benchmarks, taking into account position and level of responsibility of the recipient of the variable compensation. The Board of Directors or, where delegated to it, the Compensation Committee shall determine the relative weight of the performance criteria and the respective target values.
- ⁴ Compensation to members of the Board of Directors and the executive management may be paid or granted in the form of cash, shares, in kind, or in the form of other types of benefits; compensation to members of the executive management may in addition be paid or granted in the form of options, financial instruments or similar units. The Board of Directors, or where delegated to it, the Compensation Committee shall determine grant, vesting, exercise and forfeiture conditions. It may provide for acceleration or removal of vesting and exercise conditions, for payment or grant of compensation based upon assumed target achievement, or for forfeiture, in each case in the event of pre-determined events such as a change-of-control or termination of an employment or mandate agreement. The Company may procure any shares required to meet any resulting payment obligations through purchases in the market or, to the extent available, by using conditional share capital.
- ⁵ Compensation may be paid by the Company or companies controlled by it.
- 11.6 If variable compensation is approved prospectively, the Board of Directors shall submit the compensation report to the Shareholders' Meeting for a consultative vote.

12. Agreements with Members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management

¹ The Company or companies controlled by it may enter into agreements for a fixed term or for an indefinite term with members of the Board of Directors relating to their compensation. Duration and termination shall comply with the term of office and the law.

² The Company or companies controlled by it may enter into employment agreements with members of the executive management for a fixed term or for an indefinite term. Employment agreements for a fixed term may have a maximum duration of one year. Renewal is possible. Employment agreements for an indefinite term may have a notice period of maximum twelve months.

13. Mandates outside the Group

¹ No member of the Board of Directors may hold more than fifteen additional mandates of which no more than four mandates in listed companies.

² No member of the executive management may, subject to the approval by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, hold more than five additional mandates of which no more than one mandate in a listed company.

³ The following mandates are not subject to these limitations:

- a) mandates in companies which are controlled by the Company or which control the Company;
- b) mandates held by a member of the Board of Directors or the executive management at the request and on behalf of the Company or any companies controlled by it, including in investment funds not controlled, but managed by the Company or any companies controlled by it;
- c) mandates in associations, foundations, trusts and employee welfare foundations. No member of the Board of Directors or of the executive management shall hold more than ten such mandates.

⁴ Mandates shall mean mandates in comparable functions at other enterprises with an economic purpose.

Mandates in different legal entities that are under joint control are deemed one mandate.

14. Statutory Auditors

The Shareholders' Meeting shall elect one or various Auditors as the Statutory Auditors for a one-year term of office. The auditors shall comply with the legal requirements concerning qualifications and independence. Rights and obligations of the Statutory Auditors shall be determined by the applicable legal provisions.

15. Signatures on behalf of the Company

The Board of Directors shall appoint authorized signatories for the Company and the type of signature, which should basically be only joint signature by two persons.

16. Annual accounts and disposition of net earnings

The annual statement of accounts will be made as at 31 December of each year.

17. Liquidation

The Shareholders' Meeting may decide at any time to liquidate the Company. The liquidators shall be elected by the Shareholders' Meeting; members of the Board of Directors may be elected.

18. Notices

² Notices from the Company to registered shareholders may, at the election of the Board of Directors, be validly given by publication in the Swiss Official Gazette of Commerce or in a form that allows proof by text.

19. Acknowledgment of the Articles of Incorporation

Acquisition, possession and ownership of shares shall imply acknowledgment of the Articles of Incorporation.
