PRESS RELEASE

GAM appoints Valentina Restelli as Client Director of GAM Italia

GAM Investments today announced the appointment of Valentina Restelli as a senior Client Director of GAM Italia. Valentina Restelli will report to Alessandro Arrighi at GAM Italia and joined the firm on 7 November 2022.

Valentina Restelli has many years of experience in the asset management industry and was most recently Relationship Manager for Financial Advisors at Eurizon Asset Management in Milan. She has worked there since 2006 in various roles, as an equity analyst, portfolio manager as well as retail and wholesale relationship manager. Valentina Restelli started her career as a business analyst at EY in Milan. She holds a Master's degree in Banking and Business Administration from SDA Bocconi School of Management, Milan.

Riccardo Cervellin, Head of GAM Italia, said: "I am delighted to welcome a true talent, as Valentina is, to the GAM Italia team. She brings with her the best prerequisites to strengthen our distribution team and to further focus on the client needs. As an active asset manager, client service is even more essential in times of volatile markets and Valentina's solid background will greatly contribute to GAM's success in Italy."

Valentina Restelli, Senior Client Director of GAM Italia, added: "I am very happy to join such a highly professional team as GAM. GAM has a long tradition in asset management in Italy and a prestigious brand. It is a pleasure to support the distribution team with my expertise."
